The Times says that the chance for a lively race for congress in the Louisville district are good. Thomp son, Winchester, Caruth, Willis and Jacob all want to "get there."

With $700,000,000 locked up in the vaults of the government and the people being heavily drained every year to pay pensioners, no one need to wonder that "times are hard."

ALL OF 'EM WANT PIE.

Feland Cannot Satisf Them.

The Owensboro Inquirer says that Mr. Feland has used his best judgment in making recommendations ne Department for the appointment of men in his district, but there has pevertheless been considerable kickwere more applicants for place than is allowed under the rules. This was nothing but what Mr. Feland expected and the disgruntled will have to wait until their time comes Tae Inquirer thinks that peace will reign in the Republican camp of this district after a while, but the Henderson Gleaner takes a different view of the matter. The Gleaner says:

camp; no skirmish, no firing from ambush, but a straight, square out, face-to-face battle coming on. The question arises and must be answered s Mr. Feland the Republican party Is the man who united with the Democrats and mugwumps tu seek ing the election of Horace Greely to the presidency of the United States to turn a cold shoulder to Republions who have held the faith handed down by Lincoln and Grant, and distribute patronage to those who have een idlers and lukewarm partisaus

"Mr. Feland has overridden the commendation of the Republican clubs of this county in his appointment of one storekeeper, and certainy he has given appointments to fledgelings while the old battle-scared veterans are left to review their work and then suck their thumbs. Go it, Feland, go it. You are doing more to disrupt and rend asunder what remains of a party once well organized and fully equipped than all of the Republicans who have held an office since the war."

THE JOLLY-FELAND MATTER.

The following, from the Owensporo Messenger, gives about all the light to be obtained as to who will e recommended by Attorney Jolly for the Assistant Attorneyship:

The local stir relative to the appointment of an assistant U. S. District Attorney has about subsided, though a few people are doing a great deal of talking as though trying to make a fuss of it whether the the principal parties interested will Nothing new has come to the surface. Mr. Jolly is still in Louisville, and if he has made a move it is not announced.

The Louisville Post yesterday tool a look at the situation and felt to say ' Hon. George W. Jolly, the new United States District Attorney for Kentucky, appeared shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon in the United States Circuit Clerk's office, and took the oath of office, as District Attorney for the State of Kentucky, Samuel B. Crail, United States Cerk, swearing him in. Judge Wickliffe the present Democratic District Attorney, also appeared in his usua good humor and in his own proper person, as the lawyers say.

Soon after Mr. Jolly was swo-n in the District Attorney and the new one retired for private consultation. It then leaked out that Judge Wickliffe had declined to give up the office until his term expired in January next, he having been commissioned for four years. A representa-tive of the Post saw both Mr. Jolly line connecting with Evansville. The and Judge Wickliffs about the matter of when the new one would go in Jolly said he presumed he would go

BOILER EXPLOSION AT DAWSON

Two Lives Lost and Three Men Ser ously injured.

List Monday afternoon while the stave machine of Seaman & Co. was in full operation at Dawson the boil-er exploded and a plece of it struck James Jackson, the fireman, on the head, killing him Instantly. Another man by the name of James D. Meaders was scalded so badly that he died the next day. Three other employes who were near by when W. A LOWRY, Vice-President. the explosion occurred were very seriously if not fatally injured. The machine was located just above the C. F. JARRETT, railroad bridge and the explosion was beard for miles around. It caused considerable excitement in Dawson, and soon hundreds of persous were rapidly making their way to the scene of the accident. The fireman lay dead with his brains knocked out by the fatal missile, while Meaders was found in a per his command, deales himself and his feetly helpless condition. Medical aid was soon secured for him and the three other unfortunates, and the remains of the fireman were promptly prepared for burial.
